

TAKING ACCOUNT OF SOCIAL IMPACTS IN PROJECTS

 Dates and duration to be agreed

 Location to be agreed

Contact us for a customised quote

OBJECTIVES

- Be in a position to understand and analyse the social impacts of projects, in particular resettlement action plans (RAP).
- Be capable of analysing and monitoring the implementation of environmental and social management plans (ESMP).
- Set up compensation measures.

THE + OF YOUR TRAINING

- Importance given to exchanging experiences, practical work and case studies.

CONCERNED AUDIENCE

Environmental and social experts

GOOD TO KNOW

Example of a 5 days programme

PEDAGOGICAL PROGRAMME

Module 1

Taking account of social impacts and monitoring them

- Stakeholder consultation plans.
- Taking stock of existing socio-economic and health data and data collection methodology.
- Analysing the probable impacts of the project on the population, housing, ways of living, health, etc.
- Defining and programming mitigation or compensation measures: social component of the management plan (ESMP).
- Design and implementation of population resettlement plans (RAP).
- Implementation of compensation measures.

présentiel ou @learning

Module 2

Environmental assessments (SEA or ESIA)

- National and international requirements of sustainable development, and international commitments.
- Social assessment of programmes and projects: ESIA, risk analysis, etc.
- Preliminary scoping study to identify issues and drawing-up of terms of reference or specifications.
- Analysis of the initial condition of the project site.
- Interactions between activities, effects and environmental aspects.
- Impact analysis methods and tools: checklists, matrices, Delphi, models, single criterion and multi-criteria analyses.
- Definition of mitigation measures and variants to optimise the project; the environmental and social impact management plan (ESMP).

présentiel ou @learning

 Prerequisites : None